Mill Creek Colliery Band
'In Remembrance with Brass, Pipes, and Drums'
Saturday, November 7, 7:30pm

The Mill Creek Colliery Band will kick off its 14th season by presenting a musical tribute 'In Remembrance with Brass, Pipes, and Drums', to be performed on Saturday, November 7, 2015, 7:30pm, at All Saints' Anglican Cathedral (10035 - 103 Street NW, Edmonton).

We will pay tribute to our veterans past and present with the unique sounds and music of Edmonton's fabulous British-style brass band, under the direction of David Hoyt. Selections will include: the march, The Voice of the Guns (Alford); the patriotic anthem, I Vow to Thee My Country (Holst); music from the movies, Schindler's List (Williams/Smith) and Pearl Harbour (Zimmer/ Bernaerts); the big band classic, Tuxedo Junction; and the stirring Fire in the Blood (Lovatt-Cooper). Our special guest for the evening will be the Viscount Park Pipe Band (Drum Major David Trew).

Come and join us for an evening of delightful and memorable music as we pay tribute to our veterans.
