Mill Creek Colliery Band
'Festive Brass'
Saturday, December 12, 7:30pm

The Mill Creek Colliery Band will celebrate the holiday season by presenting 'Festive Brass', a concert to be performed on Saturday, December 12th, 7:30pm, at All Saints' Anglican Cathedral (10035 - 103 Street NW, Edmonton).

Edmonton's own 28-piece, British-style brass band will present a musical feast of seasonal and festive favorites. Selections include: The Coventry Carol; Christmas Troika; Joy; How Far Is It To Bethlehem; Christmas Day; Christmas Calypso; Candlelight Carol; The Boar's Head Wassail; and Happy. Band members will be featured in two duets: Nancy Thornhill (trombone) and Doreen Moisan (flugel horn) in Baby, It's Cold Outside, and David Langor and Dan Skepple (cornets) in Quicksilver. As usual, there will be an opportunity for the audience to sing along to a couple of Christmas favorites. There will be a special musical treat during intermission as our bass players team up for some Christmas tuba quartet music. The band will be led by principal conductor, David Hoyt. The compère will be Kenneth Pearce.

Come and join the MCCB for a delightful evening of festive music.

Tickets are $20 (students/seniors $15).

Tickets are available at the door, or in advance through TIX ON THE SQUARE [Charge-by-phone 420-1757 or on line at www.tixonthesquare.ca]
